

Touching Myself

Integration Specialist - Tania Kraus

Sometimes I like to touch my private area. It feels good.

It is okay to touch my private area when I am alone.

I may be alone when I am at home in my bedroom.

When I am alone, people cannot see me.

It is not okay to touch my private area when people can see me.

I am not alone at school. People can see me at school.

People feel uncomfortable if I touch my private area.

I should not touch my private area when I am with people.

I should not touch my private area at school.
